

III. International Conference in Historiography (Debrecen, 2024, 21-23, November).

Venue: University of Debrecen, Main Building, Debrecen, Egyetem Square 1. (Institute for History, III. floor)

Program:

Thursday, 21. November, Lecture Hall XII: (In Hungarian)

Chair: Miru György (University of Debrecen)

16.00-16.30: Opening, Greetings. (Erős Vilmos)

16.30-16.55: Erős Vilmos (University of Debrecen): Az Anjouk emlékezete a 20. századi magyar történetírásban.

16.55-17.30: Journal presentation:

Both Noémi Zsuzsanna (Sepsiszentgyörgy, Székely Múzeum) (online): Korunk, 2024/4. (Magyar Történeti Szemle [20.század.])

17.30-18.00: Book presentation:

Erős Vilmos: Populus, plebs, rusticus. (Szabó István „harmadik utas” társadalomtörténete.) Ráció, Budapest, 2022.

Orosz István lektori véleménye. (Miru György.)

Friday, 22. November, Room 316 (Institute-Library): (In English)

Chair: Csaba Lévai (University of Debrecen)

Writing History Under Dictatorships.

11.00-11.25: Christophe Araujo (University of Paris-Nanterre) (online): The Annales and the Portuguese community (from the 1930 until 1970): an influence or a repellent?

11.25-11.50: Jan van Muilekom (University of Groningen): Keeping a grip on the recent past comparing the meddling of Tito's and Franco's dictatorships.

11.50-12.15: Iryna Mykhailova (The University of Ca'Foscari, Venice): „The Last Word of the Renaissance Civilization”: Francesco Gucciardini in Soviet Historiography.

12.15- 12.40: Vilmos Erős: From „Gleichschaltung” to Reprofessionalization: Hungarian Historiography from 1948 to the 1980s.

12.40-13.00: Discussion.

13.00-15.00: Lunch

Afternoon section: Chair: Vilmos Erős

15.00-15.25: Csaba Lévai: Interpretations of the American Revolution in Hungary during the Socialist Regime, 1949-1989.

15.25-15.50: Zsuzsanna Varga (Eötvös Lóránd University, Budapest): Themes and approaches in the research of the postwar Hungarian rural society.

15.50-16.00: Discussion, coffee break.

16.00-16.25: Fatih Durgun (Madeniyet University Istanbul) (online): Scholarly Network of Georg Waitz and William Stubbs: A Neglected Episode of British-German Historiographical Interaction in the Nineteenth Century.

16.25-16.50: Milán Sáfrány (University of Debrecen): The Land of the Free? Recent Developments in the Historiography of the American Revolution.

16.50-17.00: Discussion.

17.00-18.00: Book-presentations:

Approaches to Historiography II. (Debrecen University Press, 2022)- Zoltán Paál (University of Debrecen)

Stefan Berger: History and Identity. (Oxford, 2022.) - Anna Katalin Kádár (University of Debrecen).

18.00-20.00: Dinner in Restaurant „Krúdy.”

Saturday, 23. November, Room/Raum 316. (Institute-Library, Institut-Bibliothek) : (In German)

Chair/Sektion-Vorsitzender: Kálmán Kovács (Universität von Debrecen/University of Debrecen).

10.00-10.25: Endre Kiss (Eötvös Lóránd Universität von Budapest/Universität von Veszprém): Über die Erscheinung des Revisionismus in der Geschichtswissenschaft.

10.25-10.50: Eszter Propsz (Universität von Szeged/Hochschule Juhász Gyula): Literarische Konstruktionen der Ansiedlung der Deutschen in Ungarn im 18. Jahrhundert.

10.50-11.00: Diskussion.

Chair: Csaba Lévai/Vilmos Erős.

(In English and in French.)

11.00-11.25: Anna Katalin Kádár: The phenomenon of „material turn” with a special regard of Hungarian ethnographic research.

11.25-11.50: Zoltán Paál: Le triple plan de synthèse d'Alexander Eckhardt dans le contexte de l'histoire des mentalités.

11-50-12.10: Discussion.

12.10-12.30: Concluding remarks. (Vilmos Erős)